

Ann Fabian Kurz

September 3, 1915 - March 20, 2019

Ann Fabian Kurz, age 103, of Charlotte, NC, passed away on March 20, 2019.

Ann Kurz was born on September 3, 1915, to her parents Charles and Helen Fabian of Flemington, New Jersey. She was a graduate of Flemington High School and the Flemington Children's Choir School which was a training school for junior choirs of various Flemington churches. A nationally known institution, it was respected and recognized for its religious musical programs, continuing in operation until the last graduation class of 1958. Ann was an active member of St. Magdalen's Catholic Church and the church choir. She worked many years as a legal secretary for the law firm of Large, Scammell and Danziger, of Flemington, New Jersey before retiring to North Carolina with her husband Frank.

Ann loved music and expressed it through her singing and participation in several church choirs. When she moved to Charlotte, she joined St. John Neumann Catholic Church and its choir. In her past, she played the violin and piano while also belonging to a dance group called the "Blue Jingers". She was a devoted follower of her Catholic faith. Ann always established a beautiful home in any house she lived in, two of which she and her husband spent many hours building themselves. She was an accomplished cook and made many lovely meals for family and friends; she enjoyed planting and tending to her flower garden. During the last few years of her life she joyously welcomed two great granddaughters. She will be remembered by many as a gracious woman completely dedicated to her family, leaving behind many sentimental memories.

Ann was preceded in death by her husband Frank August Kurz and tragically, her children Regina Ann Kurz and James Frank Kurz. She is survived by her only granddaughter, Olivia Kurz Heller, daughter of the late James Kurz and Nanette Kurz Bush of Charlotte, NC. Other surviving members are her great grandchildren Everly and Lana, daughters of Olivia and Cameron Heller; nephews Jack Gibbs (Christiane), Bill Shepherd (Jeanene), Tom Shepherd (Jan) and nieces Celia Trembulak, Kathy Gibbs and Linda Weddington (Ted). She is further survived by numerous other relatives and friends.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 11:00 AM on Thursday, March 28th, at St John Neumann Catholic Church. The family will receive friends in the church fellowship hall following the Mass.

“ My fondest memories of my Aunt Ann are from the days of my youth when the Kurz's lived in Flemington, NJ up on Star Route A. I was a youngster around seven or eight years old. I remember the family getting together on Thanksgiving or other special occasions, where we assembled many times at my Aunt Ann's house. We always had a good time there and especially partaking of the delicious foods that she prepared. The good times included much tomfoolery with my cousins as we played outside doing various things. I will always remember Aunt Ann as a kind, loving and beautiful human being with a strong faith in God. We will miss her dearly. Rest in Peace Aunt Ann - Tom (and Jan) Shepherd (nephew)
