

Gregory Vincent Broom

November 14, 1984 - September 5, 2017

Gregory Vincent Broom, 32, of Mint Hill, passed away suddenly at his home on September 5, 2017.

Greg was born in Weymouth, Mass, on November 14, 1984, the son of Vincent Broom and Jeri Morganella. He grew up in New Hampshire and lived there before moving to Charlotte about two years ago and was currently working as a fiber optic installation tech with Strategic Connections. Greg was lovingly known as "Ginkus", "Boy", "Og" and "Clarence" by those blessed to know him. He enjoyed many things in life including cooking, eating, video games, music and movies. But most of all, Greg loved the time spent with family and friends and he will always be remembered for his big heart. He was a fun loving clown who was both witty and smart, but he could also be very kind and compassionate. He was a great son, uncle, brother, cousin, grandson, nephew and friend. His unique spirit touched many hearts deeply and he will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Greg is survived by his mother, Jeri (husband Tom) Norton of Mint Hill; his father Vincent (wife Nancy) Broom of Rockland, Mass; his girlfriend Kiersten McCurdy; three sisters: Angela Broom (partner Christopher Bisson) Somersworth, New Hampshire, Beth (husband Pedro) Giesta of Somersworth, New Hampshire, and Bridgette Whalen of Rockland, Mass; and nieces and nephews: Alexis AKA Steve, Josh, Colby, Tiago, Olivia, Jaxson, Kyla and Lawrence. Greg is further survived by his grandparents: Lee and Carole Broom and Silvio and Pauline Morganella. He was preceded in death by his grandmothers, Shirley Morganella and Lorena Norton; and he is further survived by numerous other family and friends.

Thank you all for the love you have shared, all of your thoughts, and prayers, have helped tremendously. Greg wanted us to celebrate his life, not mourn his passing. Please join us on Sunday September 17th from 11:00 am- 5:00 pm 83 Rocky Hill Rd Somersworth NH 03878 for a chance to share memories, stories, pictures, and love of Greg. There will be a blessing of Greg's ashes by his godmother, followed by "Amazing Grace" on bagpipes, at 1:00 pm.

“ Mr. Gregory OG "The Boy" Broom. I remember first time I first saw you walking up the street and I thought who is that in Tom and Jeri yard taking pictures of there cowboy Halloween decorations. Little be told it was the same old school cat with his hat on walking down to my surprise birthday party being original charismatic and just a great conversationalist. We had so many good times talked about movies played rummy and every time I beat you in chess you would tell me well played but in the same since you are always there when I needed you always. My heart is with you forever my thoughts and prayers are with your family at this time as well as I know that you will be up there playing some strings on that guitar and even with your bad hand. The greatest of times were just watching old school movies horror flicks especially but just understanding a director's cut or a screenplay in picking out the actors who had their first B movie roles and now they're up to everything that's great Jennifer Aniston leprechaun you know Christopher Walken dead zone awesome we love him. Not to mention texting each other when David Bowie past Labyrinth oh my gosh watched it on DVD. Most of all I Will Always Love You. You will forever be my favorite neighbor, to my long lasting friend, to the original Guinea that I grew to love. May you keep shining so bright cuz you will always remain a twinkle in my eye. I Will Always Love You. Your journey only begins now. forever young Greg Forever Young “ Sending my love and condolences to Gregs family during this difficult time.

I didn't know Greg personally, but we became friends immediately through Beth on social media. He caught my attention with his humorous personality, and I knew he was someone I'd love to be friends with. We shared many conversations, and all we did was make each other laugh, sometimes finish each other sentences, and poke fun at each other. He made social media bearable. Lol. I will always remember him for his smart witty funny self he was.

“ One of my first memories of Greg was the night I walked into a semi-formal dance at the high school. It was dark inside and I couldn't see squat. I had just cleared the doors when this body was suddenly wrapping me up in the huge bear hug. When the arms finally let me go and my eyes had adjusted to the lack of light, I took a step back to see a smiling Greg Broom. I was his teacher, but I was his friend, too, and for a while we were also neighbors. I loved Greg and he loved me, something for which I will always be grateful!

“ To his Papa, Silvio "Sal" Morganella and myself, his Uncle Jofuss, he was also very affectionately known as "Ginkus". His Papa and I will always remember his smiles and his love of his family. May the angels speed your journey home "Ginkus". We will miss you. Love forever

Joseph Morganella - September 07, 2017 at 03:34 PM

“ My heart is broken. Greg, you were the little brother I never had. We would laugh, fight, bug the shit out of each other... Like true siblings do. You hold a special place in my heart which is why this is so hard for me. I don't have a single bad memory of you which helps me through this hard time. I will always remember you as the kind, caring, generous, shithead you were.

I love you Boy!

Tom, Jeri, Ang, Beth, Toni.. and the rest of the family. my heart goes out to all of you. I am grateful for having you all in my life. You truly are a wonderful loving family.

“ Greg was more than a best friend, he was my brother. I have so many memories of him. Concerts, parties, Tough Guy Movie Nights, late night talks, playing Halo online, making fun of people's musical tastes, etc. I will never forget the good times we shared. My heart goes out to his family and friends. We truly lost a one-of-a-kind dude. I love you, Greg.
