“ Lemmie, Terry, Donna and Ricky: I am so sorry for your loss. I just learned of Lois's passing tonight, July 20th. Of all my aunts, she was the one that I had been the closest to and the sister that my mama was the closest to. So many memories. I have missed all of you and have often been on my mind. What can I say except that I guess we are the normal dysfunctional family. But the good memories prevail! Lois was a great cook and a hard worker. She was a professional upholsterer and yes, she did love to shop. Two of my favorite stories of her: when she and mama were "kids", they played "chicken" where they would run out in front of a car, across the road. Well, mama ran first and made it. The next car came down the road and Lois ran into the side of it. Broke her leg...no mention of damage to the car. The other story, Lemmie was always getting "critters". Some times goats, cows, chickens and emu. Lois would hang clothes out on the line in the yard, and the long legged birds would chase her...I think Lemmie had to put up a dividing fence to keep peace in the family. Dwell on the good and find comfort in knowing that as she took her last breath, her next breath was there with The Father.

Love and blessings,
Annette Crawford
