Visitation will begin at 11:30 and at 12:30, a service celebrating the life, love, faith and blessing of Carol will be held. Interment will follow at 2:30 pm at Sharon Memorial Park.

“ My friendship with Carol began several years ago when she was an intercessor in the prayer ministry at church. She had been contacting me during recent years when she heard of prayer needs for Jack and me because of health issues. She prayed with and for us faithfully. We are very thankful for her prayers, love and concern. It was shocking to hear of her sudden death, but we have peace in knowing that she is with the Lord.
Our prayers are with her family.

“ Carol was a blessing to my Sister Pam and I. We enjoyed getting together to catch up over lunch or on the weekends. Carol was extremely proud of her Grandsons and always enjoyed updating us on what they were up to. Carol was truly a woman of God and I know is being blessed in Heaven for her commitment and devotion to him. Still hard to believe she is gone. We will miss you Carol!
