

Ammon Daniel Brown

June 5, 1984 - December 10, 2018

Ammon Daniel Brown, 34, of Mooresville and formerly of Charlotte, NC, died unexpectedly on Monday, December 10, 2018.

Ammon was born in Middletown, Ohio, on Tuesday, June 5, 1984, the son of Marsh Wayne Brown and Constance Sue Bailey. He enjoyed many things in life with a special fondness for things that went fast. Cars, jet skis, motorcycles or boats, it did not matter. He took his fondness into his career where he worked in sales for CRG Motorsports in Mooresville. Ammon's ability to relate to people made him an excellent salesman. He was proud of his appearance, especially with all of the time he put into working out and body building. But most of all, his major love in life was people. Wherever he went, he surrounded himself with good people and good times. He was a kind-hearted, loving, supportive man who would always gladly give the shirt off his back. As a strong pillar in the Brown family, he always took care of his brothers, sisters and mother. He was a loving "Uncle Ammy" to his many nieces and nephews and his positive, inspiring spirit made him a great friend to everyone.

Ammon is survived by his father, Marsh Wayne Brown of Tavares, FL, and his mother, Constance Sue Bailey of Charlotte; a son, Aidan Ammon Daniel Brown; a brother, Aaron Brown (wife Chelsea) of Waxhaw and their children Skylar, Teagan; a brother, Benjamin Wayne Brown (wife Nicole) of Greenwood, SC, and their children Benjamin and Dominic; a sister, Mary Elizabeth Eberwein (husband Nicholas) of Jacksonville, NC, and their two dogs, Tini and Nala; a sister, Rebecca Sue Brown (Matt Bauer) of Woodbine, Maryland, and their children Johnathon, Penelope and Hannah. Ammon is further survived by his grandfather, Delmus Brown of Tavares, FL; his grandmother, Cheryl Bailey (husband Sam Adams) of Brookville, OH; his boss and best friend, Calvin Grover of Mooresville; his partner in crime, Johnathon Pressley; and numerous other relatives and friends.

A gathering of friends and family and a service honoring the life, love and blessing of Ammon will be held Saturday, December 15th, at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 5815 Carmel Road, Charlotte, NC 28226. Visitation will begin at 4:30 pm and at 5:45 pm, all present will join in the worship center for a service at 6:00 pm led by Bishop Charles Jeppson. All services will conclude at the LDS Center.

Ammon's family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for them.

“ I'm very sorry for your loss. So many memories good and not so good, but never wanted this for him or your family. I hoped he would be able to get his life in order in for himself and his son. It breaks my heart to hear he was alone. Connie, I can't imagine what you are going through right now. Wanting so much to help your child and can't, but I believe God said Ammon your struggle is over and now it's time to come home. May God bless each one of you and may all of you feel God's love and peace.

“ Dear Marsh Brown & Connie Bailey & Family: I was very saddened when I learned of the passing of Ammon Brown your oldest child. No matter how one of our loved ones are taken back to Heaven by our Father in Heaven it leaves an emptiness in our lives that can and does cause pain and grief. I know all to well what it's like as Judy and I lost our Oldest child Amy Rolph on September 30,2011. Our lives were changed for the days and years we have left on this earth before we are called home by our loving Father in Heaven. Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. If you ever need someone to talk to Judy and I are here. I am so grateful for the restored gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ that through his plan and coming to earth and doing all that was asked of him and required of him that He could provide a way that all mankind can follow and then be able to live in the presence of God and Our Savior for all of Eternity. We love you, we are saddened with you and we know that God will bless each of your lives as you seek His blessings. <3

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Ammon here in this life. I remember him as a sweet man; just a couple of weeks ago I got to give him a hug as he was visiting with some of my family. I remember him also as a very sweet young man. I am sorrowed by his death, and praying for peace for all of you in his family, but I do rejoice with him at what he is seeing and experiencing today. I am here for you if you need anything.
