“ Our beloved tía. One of my first memories of her was the day she got married. I was one of the flowers girls and i reminded her pretty hair and dress. Then we went back to tía Julia's house for the party. Tía y tío were so In loved. Every time i think of Tía Chaly y see her smile her love for her dear husband, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was a fantastic baker, and cook. That loved to spoiled her friends and family. Being with our dearest Tía on her last week here on earth was a privilege that i will never forget. My mother and I had a lovely time of remembering. Ours most sincerely condolences to tío Mario, claudia and family. Bill and Carolina Auer

Nuestra querida y amada tía Chaly. Uno de mis primeros recuerdos de ella fue el día que se casó. Yo era una de las niñas de la corte recuerdo su lindo peinado y vestido. Luego volvimos a casa de tías Julia para la fiestita. Tía y tío eran tan lindos funtos. Cada vez que pienso en Tía Chaly veo su sonreír su amor por su querido esposo, hijos, nietos y bisnietos. Era una panadera y cocinera fantástica. Que amaba mimar a sus amigos y familiares. Bill y yo siempre recordamos su linda casa en los Poconos.

Haber estado con nuestra querida Tía en su última semana aquí en la tierra fue un privilegio que nunca olvidaré. Mi madre y yo pasamos un rato precioso hablando, riendo y atendiendo. Nuestras más sinceras condolencias al tío Mario, claudia y familia. Bill y Carolina
