“ I met her Mom Maggie when we worked in Rockefeller Center as key punch operators. I became very close to Maggie and her two children. I last saw Maggie sometime in 1980's. I spoke to Andera after her Mom died. In this photo she looks just like her Mom. I was friends with Thelma and Poca and Joycie. Of course that was many years ago. I now know that Maggie and her two beautiful children all are asleep in Jesus.

“ When I heard that you had passed on Wednesday my heart was broken but also there was Joy knowing that you had lived a full and blessed life. No more pain no more disappointments no more loneliness you are now resting in the arms of Our Lord and savior with a brand new body I could hear you laughing and jumping for joy now. Rest on my sister, we loved you and will miss you but God loves you more.

“ Andera has departed this life, where she lived and served well. She is now resting in peace, safe in His arms. Even in her absence, much love and care are being shown to her. May God comfort and bless each loving family member and dear friend as they heal from the void that has been left in their lives. One day there will be a great reunion!

“ I remember when I first met Andera she and Shirley were taking a walk through the neighborhood that Andera had just moved to. As they passed my home they spoke and I replied and welcomed her to the neighborhood and that was the beginning of our friendship. We became walking buddies and got to know each other. We discovered we had a lot in common! There was gardening and we were thrifty with that, knitting, beading, shopping for our trips and just shopping. We had our long Bible talks which led to our Bible Book Club. We shared laughter and tears together she was my friend and I will truly miss her.
