“ I hope my wonderful family stays strong for Andrey. I remember talking to him till 4 in the morning and spending good quality time whenever we would visit. I loved taking Andrey with us wherever we would go to hang out when we were in town and he was always up for spending time with his Bro in law. Def a lost a good guy. But God sees all and knows best, and has better planning than any of us ever had.

“ *Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to.
He'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day,
That brings him back as clearly as though he were still here,
And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.
For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart
And he will live forever locked safely within your heart.*

Andryusha, you are always locked inside my heart! I have wonderful memories of you!

“ Life is so fragile. And the pain of losing a loved one so young is devastating. Andrey has left a legacy of love and memories that will always be cherished. Hold tight to those memories...Lean on each other for support...And look to God's Word, the Bible, for comfort and strength. 1Peter 5:7 encourages; "...throw all your anxiety upon Him, because He cares for you." My deepest condolences. Galatians 1:3; John 5:21; John 11:11, 25-26, Matthew 5:5; Revelation 21:3,4.
