“ Dearest Aunt Angie was amazing woman. I always knew I would receive a smile, and a loving hug from Aunt Angie. She was always sweet and kind. She always reminded me of my mother.

A year ago when I left Mother she and I had had our hair done. She asked me to stop by from Debs shop so she could see my hair. This was on the 2nd of August the last time I would see and hug and kiss her but Someday we will see each other again when Jesus calls us up. Mother was the most like Jesus anyone could see and without knowing her just watching her everyday you would see Jesus.
