“ Lee, your mom was such a wonderful, beautiful and funny person. This world has lost an angel; I never saw her when she didn't make me smile. My very favorite memory - when she became a part of our family every time I saw her at Mom's house she would color with me. Now that doesn't sound special all by itself however for a young child who didn't live in a neighborhood with other children to play it this was so special. Many times she would ask me to get the books and crayons which made it even more special; I loved to color. What a special woman and you can always consider yourself lucky to have her as your mom! Lee, we are praying for you as you travel this road of loss, God bless you!
