Farewell Message from her sons:

Stanley Terrence:

The circumstances of life kept us from being together. But I will always carry you in my heart. The time we had together and the conversations we had alone with laughter. My heart hurts and my eyes are filled with tears. But I have joy knowing that you are with our Father in Heaven. I will Love you always, and carry you in my heart. Welcome home Mom. I will see you soon,

Dale Elias:

“Momma Anna, a part of me goes along with you and no matter how my journey in this life on earth ends my life would not have begun had you not decided I was worth keeping. Thank you for the life you gave to me, the memories will forever stay in my heart and mind. I will always Love you Momma. There is no me without you.”

Jeffrey Byron:

Mother, It was my Honor & a Blessing from Heaven to find you again after 32-40 years apart. Only my FATHER in HEAVEN could do that. I will always treasure the all-night conversations that we had upon finding you again---those full of Wisdom, Laughter & especially the Understanding you gave to me--Mother to Son. These are treasures that no-one else could give, nor I ever have had before. Farewell? O No, instead: may You *Fare VERY Well indeed” in the Loving Arms of THE HOLY FATHER--whom we so often highlighted in those loving conversations to be treasured FOREVER in my heart. My Soul is in Pieces. O My Dear Mother, I pray the LOVE of THE CHRIST be with You, Both Now & Forevermore. Amen

Erich Gerard:

Momma, I know it has been a long hard struggle for you. However; in the end it was a great honor caring for you, not only were you my Mother you were a great friend. The wisdom you shared with me will forever be in my heart. Until we meet again; farewell Momma I Love you.
