“ I was a classmate, and section mate of Barry during the most trying period at Kings Point, Plebe Indoctrination and Plebe Year. He was big and intimidating, but he was a good person. He was never mean and he was never a bully. I will always respect him for that.

“ I was a classmate of Barry at Kings Point some 36 years ago. I always remember Dekis as being big and intimidating, but in the end he was just a big bear. Glad I had the opportunity to know "Deek". Rest in Peace, Fair Seas.

“ Barry was just here in NJ to help with his brothers memorial. Mark had died 3 weeks to the day before Barry. It's a great shock to all of us. We were just laughing and talking of good times.

I am so sorry for his loss. He was still young and will be greatly misses

Love to all the family, wish I could be there. Beth Dekis, Kevin and Cote Keim

“ I remember every time I saw my godfather he would pick me up (he is over a foot taller than me) and I felt like I was in the sky!

He was very proud to be your Godfather. He took that "job" very seriously, as he did with all his jobs.

“ To Barry's dear family,

Working with special people was commonplace during my years with Turner. Yet a few stand out from that special crowd. Not because they happen to be among the smartest in a smart crowd (which Barry was), or the hardest working (which Barry was) or the first to offer to tackle the toughest project (which Barry always did). Barry was all of those things. What made Barry special was his compassion for all those around him. His heart was as big as he was.

Barry truly enjoyed his work and the challenges that came along with it. But more than that, he took special joy in talking about his children. To Dana, John and Nicholas....always remember how very proud your Dad was of each of you. And to Michelle...I never once heard Barry speak of you without a wide smile and bright eyes lighting up his face.

My favorite memory of Barry? Has to be the cow. Yep, the poor cow Barry made an acquaintance of while driving to work on a dark country road at 5:30 one morning. It's hard to live down telling folks you're late for work because you hit a cow. A flat tire? Sure. Engine trouble? OK. But a cow? Really??? As much as I liked to tease him about that unfortunate incident I know Barry took it all in stride. It's all part of what made Barry, well, Barry. Bigger than life.

Your friend,

Mark Small
