“ She was such a kind and caring person I remember when they lived ithe lake we came over to visit. Jordan was just a baby, she made a special little play area for her to play while we went out on the boat with Cindy, Greg, Cathy and Larry. It was such a blessing for us because we don't have family in the area and she was Jordan's grandma for the day. they love on her and kept her safe while Sean and I had fun on the boat. She had a wonderful dinner waiting when we came back to the house . What s blessing and a wonderful memory.

“ She was more than just a grandmother to me, she was a mother. She was the kindest, the most loving and most caring person I have ever known. She taught me how to smile, how to live and to live life with the joy and happiness that God intended all of us to bring into our lives everyday. She did everything with joy and enthusiasm. It saddens me greatly and my heart aches that she is gone, but she has touched my life in such a way so that I can bring this same joy into the hearts and lives of my own children. I am blessed with a very loving daughter and two sons. Every day I see her light shine through them and I know in this way she will always be with us. She once told me, "The world is like a mirror, you smile at it and it will smile back." Heaven is a much better place today, and I look forward to the day when I can see her again.

“ If you have never had the pleasure of sitting down to a meal prepared by Bernie, you missed an amazing experience. Nobody could make her "Sweet & Sour Dressing, Sweet Potatoes or cheesecake better. And she brought the best homemade soups to Zoar Church on Wednesday nights.

However, it pales in comparison to her being one of the sweetest, kindest and most loving persons you will ever meet...Always ready to welcome you with open arms and warm hugs.

She will certainly be missed.

Praise the Lord for Bernie. She was a beautiful christian and a lovely friend. She was loved by young and old alike. It was a joy to visit with her and Dick and the welcome mat was always open. It was such a pleasure to be her pastor for a few years. We enjoyed many times of precious fellowship together. What a blessing she was to all of us and now she is with the Lord forever. May God comfort her husband Dick and all her family.
