

Betty Louise Crawford

May 26, 1939 - May 16, 2021

Betty Louise Grof Crawford, 81, of Charlotte, died Sunday, May 16, 2021, at Atrium Health in Charlotte.

Betty was born in Bronx, New York, on May 26, 1939, the daughter of Stephen and Elizabeth Csonka Grof. She grew up in New York and Pennsylvania, ultimately moving to Long Island. There she met and married Bruce Crawford.

Betty eventually moved to Charlotte where she worked as a secretary for Temple Beth El for 20 years before she retired. When not working, she enjoyed animals, feeding the birds every morning, neighborhood walks and crossword puzzles. She was also a woman of faith and member of St John Neumann Catholic Church. Most of all, she enjoyed time spent with family and friends.

Betty is survived by her daughters: Colleen Sluka and Carolina Crawford; her grandson, Peter Sluka Jr.; her granddaughter Ellen (husband Sotirios) Makkas; her great granddaughters Tiffany and Megan Sluka; her cousin June Lews; and her sister-in-law Celie (husband Gus) Horan. Betty is further survived by numerous other family and friends, including the many who while not related by blood, were related by love to "Aunt Betty". She was preceded in death by her husband Bruce; her father, Stephen; her mother, Elizabeth; her stepfather Robert Tucker; and her brother, Robert Tucker Jr.

Betty's family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for her and for them.
