“ This beautiful Christian lady will be greatly missed. Betty would come in to visit with me when I was having my hair done and many times she shared something delicious that she had made. She was a joy to know and always so much fun. I love you Betty and will miss you.

“ Much love to Ms. Betty's wonderful family. Special memories I have of her include lots of laughter (she always liked a good joke or prank). She had so much zest for life. One memory I will always treasure (and that I have a keepsake of) involves her generous spirit. I had taken Ms. Betty shopping one day about 13 years ago. It was just before the holidays. We were having a grand time, and I loved how humorous she was. In one store, I was admiring a beautiful, lighted nativity display while waiting for her to select her items. Christmas music was playing as she stepped up beside me, and we just stood there for a few moments reveling in the joy of the season and the beautiful artistry of the scene before us. Then we made our way to the register where she paid for her items and off we went. I didn't think another thing about that nativity scene until the next day when it showed up at my door. Ms. Betty had returned to the store and purchased it as a gift for me and sent a family member to deliver it. It has occupied a special place on my mantel every Christmas season since, and I always think of Ms. Betty when I am decorating and lovingly unwrapping it, as the days of the season go by, and as I carefully put it away, safe in its box for the next year. This holiday season, I know I will see Ms. Betty's face and hear her laughter as I place the nativity scene on the mantel. I'll think of how blessed I was to know her and of how she was so much like Christmas and like Christ - giving and joyful and lighting up the world of those who knew her. She will be missed, but imagine how much more joyful heaven is with her laughter ringing out there.
