

Beverly Ann McMEnamin

October 7, 1948 - July 19, 2018

Beverly Ann Thompson McMEnamin, 69, of Thomasville, North Carolina, passed away at Carolinas Medical Center with her family at her side. She is survived by her loving husband Thomas, and son Bryan McMEnamin, of Rural Hall, North Carolina. She is also survived by her brother Marshall Thompson, nephews Nathan, Nicholas, Thomas, Kevin, Cory, and niece Crystal. She was preceded in death by her parents Harold and Ann Wills Thompson. She was born on October 7, 1948 in Norristown, Pennsylvania and attended Wilson College in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania. After she married Thomas, she spent most of her adult life in Thomasville, where she worked and raised her family. Beverly retired from AIG where she worked as an administrative assistant for many years. She enjoyed spending time traveling throughout the world with her family, as well as spending time outside her house in the garden growing plants and vegetables. Most importantly, she loved her dobermans, labs, and a cat. She was dedicated hard working, empathetic and always bright light to everybody she encountered. She will be dearly missed.

“ *We considered Bev part of our family.
She was loyal, honest and trustworthy but mostly FAMILY .
May she Rest In Peace 🙏*
