Carolyn Ballard Broome of Charlotte, died Saturday, June 21, 2014, at home. Carolyn was born in Charlotte at St. Peter's Hospital on October 11, 1935 to Love Morgan Ballard and Clyde Howard Ballard. She was preceded in death recently by her youngest of two sons, Richard Alan "Al" Broome. She is survived by her husband of nearly 55 years, Samuel Neal Broome; oldest son, Lawrence "Larry" Anthony Broome, his wife Judi Nehlsen Broome and their son David, her third grandchild; daughter-in-law, Melanie Pence Broome (who was married to Al) and their two children, Natalie, first grandchild, and Christian, second grandchild; Carolyn's older sister, Peggy Ballard Feeney of Davis, California; nieces Elizabeth Feeney and family in England and Linda Feeney Fessler and family of Fresno, California; Carolyn's extended family throughout North Carolina. Carolyn graduated from Charlotte Central High School in 1953 and she attended Women's College of NC (now known as UNC-Greensboro) before transferring to Presbyterian School of Nursing - Charlotte from which she graduated with distinction and began a brief career in surgery nursing. She was very proud to have served Dr. William Berkley, MD for three years as his operating room nurse as he was the first plastic surgeon in Charlotte. Carolyn's loving, friendly disposition blessed the lives of friends, extended family and also strangers she would befriend in easy conversation. Her dedication to faithful attendance, service and loyalties were inspirational in her Charlotte communities and especially so in the church congregations where her faith in Jesus powered her wonderful Christian witness. To God be the Glory and Thanks for her life with us! Arrangements are being provided by Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home. The service will be Friday, June 27, 2014 at 11 am, preceded by a visitation time starting at 10 am at the Salvation Army Temple Corps at 940 Marsh Road, Charlotte, NC 28209.
