“ Always loved the way she and mom (Marcille) talked about who did what to whom as a kid. They loved to 'bicker' back and forth at each other but you could see the love they had for each other. I got the privilege of going to one of their sister get togethers and listen to them reminisce about when they were kids. This was in the back yard of grandma and grandpa's home on Hoskins. Great memories. She was loved and will be missed.

“ Aunt Faye was a sweet woman. I remember calling her a "Spicy Lady". As a child, I remember playing for hours, under the weeping willow tree in her front yard. Those are some of my favorite childhood memories. She was a small lady, with a BIG voice! When she called for us to come in, we came quickly! She raised her children to respect, love, and have compassion for others. Her children are a testimony to her life. sending love and prayers to the family,

“ Aunt Faye was a sweet woman. Yet, what I remember calling her was a "spicy lady". I remember as a child, those fun Sunday afternoons, playing in her front yard. We all played under the weeping willow tree for hours. Those were some of my favorite childhood memories. She was a small lady, with a voice that commanded attention. When she called us into the house, we came quickly! She raised her children to respect, love, and have compassion for others. Her children are a testimony to her life. sending my love and prayers,
