“ Carrie and I were co-workers at Charlotte Dermatology. She always had a smile on her face. And was always willing to go the extra mile when we worked together. She was also a good friend and a shoulder to lean on when I experienced a death of a family member a few years ago. To comfort me in my time of sorrow, she had me to listen to a song called “Dancing in the Sky” by Dani and Lizzy. I played the song again tonight and thought of her. I know she is dancing in the sky. Rest in peace Carrie. Heaven has welcomed their angel home! Until we meet again.

“ Linda, I am so sorry for your loss. Carrie and Brooke were such good friends, and Carrie was at my house so often. I have been in your shoes and know it is the worst thing in the world to lose a child. I am sorry for the grief that you are going through. It is unimaginable.

“ This is just shocking news to me! Carrie and I were childhood friends! We went to the same babysitter (Mrs.Damron) and elementary school and then my father and her mom dated so we did some family beach trips together! Linda her mother Carrie and I would love to lay on the beach and get as tan as we could be! The darker the better! I have a love for cats as well as Carrie did. I hope her kitty cats go to a wonderful family. Carrie you are gone way too young. Fly high girl friend! Tell my daddy I miss him and I said hello! You will be missed! Linda And Chris you're in my thoughts and prayers! Hugs!!!

“ To the family,
Carrie and I were class mates. And we talked all the time on Facebook. I know this is a hard time. When i heard the news it broke my heart. The bible says to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Carrie is in no more pain. Her body is free now. When you hurt call on the name of Jesus he will be there. Again Im sorry for your loss.
