“ To my cousins..... from Patty of Ohio!
As a young gal growing up, I got SO excited when I knew I was going to Aunt Carrie and Uncle Ward's house to visit! Such great memories MANY years ago BUT still etched in my heart.
My prayers and thoughts to you ALL!
The years have passed so quickly yet I will ALWAYS cherish our family bond that Aunt Carrie created!

“ Hope, Jeremiah and Benjamin, I'm sorry that you lost your sweet mother and grandmother. I remember her coming to St. Andrews Parrish with you. She was adorable and you were blessed to have her for a long time. My hear breaks for you all having to deal with losing her during these weird times. Love y'all and please stay safe.

“ Carrie was a great lady always warm and friendly when we got to be together. As I live in South Carolina we didn't meet often but she was family in that she was my daughter Keyna's mother- in-law and grandmother & great grandmother to Krystal, Lillian and Aubrey. She was loved by many and will be missed. Heaven gained another angel!
