“ I see all the vedio's on tik tok or Facebook of grandma's getting to meet there granddaughters or grandsons and I just envy them so much like I just wished my mom could have met my little girl don't get me wrong my step mom was a huge help and welcome Naomi as one of her own grandkids but I just wished my mom could have met Naomi her self in person. My grieving now in days is just full of anger and frustration like why did she have to be taken from me at such a young age or why did I have to grow up with out her kinda thing I don't know I guess cause it's close to the holidays and I miss the shit out of her and I'm just wanting her here. 🥹🥹

I love you mom ❤️

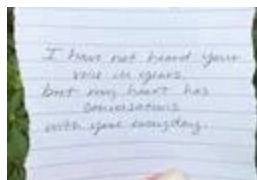

It's been 6 almost 7 long years with out you and I don't know how I've made it this far with out you tbh!

Some times I wanna cry some times I wanna punch everything I can because I'm just so mad that ur not here anymore idk but I miss the heck out of u mom and this website is the only way I can talk to you or about u really with out anyone judging me besides the people approving it mom if u could hear me right now I wouldn't even know where to start on talking I would just hug u so tight and ask you to repeatedly say I love you baby girl cause I miss that so much and I just wished I could hear it one more time but it's okay one day we will be together again hopefully no time soon but one day! I love you mom good night

“ I can't believe it's about to be 4 years. I don't want to believe that but the longer your not here the more real it is getting for me. I want you back so bad but I know your at peace and your back is all better and your knees don't hurt no more. You have no more diabetes and you can run now without breaking into tears from pain. I wish I could be beside you right now and hug your neck and here that sweet voice and see the look on your face when you see all those little baby's because lord knows how much you loved them. I will be up there soon. 80 years will fly by with a blink of an eye and I will be right beside you where I belong. You was always my safe haven. Where I felt the most wanted. Where I felt the most loved and treated just as your own. You where a fighter. YOU where a FIGHTER mama Ceil and I am so proud of the mother you where to Christina the grandmother you where to the boys and the wife you where even though it wasn't always appreciated and I can't say the same about him and most importantly for tKing me in as your own and being that role model I needed. You where not a quitter and thank you for teaching me to not quit. I'm doing what you wanted me to. I'm going to school to be a doctor. I haven't decided what surgeon I want to become but I've got it narrowed down and you would be proud of me. I'm going to school for nursing to get my GPA up so I can pursue my dream. YOUR dream. I want to be a cardiologist. Heart doctor. It sure should've been nice if I could have made your heart better. Your grandson is doing great. He is a year old now. I got a pic of you hanging on my fridge and your purple teddy bear you was laying with when you went to heaven in his crib. Sometimes I feel like he sees you. He talks to you or at least I like to think that he does when he is talking to the wall or agent he is by himself and stares out in space. Your here but I can't wait to see you again. I love you so much.

Hey mom I wonder what's its like in heaven. Do you eat steak? Or your favorite beef tips? If so you lucky and I wonder how big the dinner table is like cause alot of people die so how long is the dinner table? Okay over the crazy question now in all seriousness I miss you so much when you went up there to be with god it felt like half of my heart went too but now your in a better place so I cannot complain your not in no more pain your not stressing anymore or anything! I envy you cause I want to be up there with you but I have to stay on planet earth to watch over your grandkids and my sister I'm so thankful they are in my life now and I pray that you will watch over us every day and make sure we are safe. I love you mom with ever breath I have in my body I would do anything to bring you back but I guess sometimes you just can't bring back the past you got to live in the future and that's what I'm going to do I'm going to live my life to the fullest and when its my time to go I will celebrate like crazy when I get to heaven cause I will finally get to see my mommy but I love you mom I will talk later for now please watch over us and guide us in the right direction

“ i cant believe it in 2 days it will be 11 month since u have passed i can remember the day u died like it was yesterday the first thing that happen was you woke me up late for school because you woke up late because you went to sleep late then u called ted because i missed my bus so you got me ready and you said i love u baby girl and have a good day at school i'll see you when you get home :(so i said okay mom i love you see you later and then i got in the car and we waved bye to each other!! so i went to school and took my last EOG test it was the science one so i finished and i asked the teacher if i could call my mom to come pick me up and so i did and her friend Ann answered the phone because mom was asleep so Ann woke her up and asked her if i could come home and Ann put her on the phone and the last words my mom ever said to me was " yes sweetie you can come home" so i came home and i checked on her when i came home because she was sleeping and i am always worried about my mom when she is sleeping because she had 16 oz of air going in to her lungs ever night so i checked on her and she was fine so i went down to my aunts house and eat with them and to watch a movie but after i got done doing that i went and checked on her again and she was fine she was still sleeping and i told my aunt i would be back in 10 mins because i was going to check on a walk so i took the walk and i knowed i had to hurry and get back before mom woke up because if i was gone when she woke up i would be grounded because i not supposed to walk with out a adult so i was hurrying as fast as i could and i walking up the drive way thinking i was safe and i got up to my porch and my aunt came running out of the house saying Christina your mom is not breathing you need to go check on her i guess she couldn't tell but i went in there and seen her and my whole world just wen black because i knew in that 10 mins of being gone she passed between that min i got there because she was still warm and she was turning blue so we called for help and i went and got my dad and my cousin and we tried to bring her back but i guess that the lord had a plan for her up there in heaven but ever since may 28th 2015 around 4:30 pm my life

changed from that day forward but now after it almost being a year of her being gone i can still remember that day like it was nothing but i truly do miss that woman she was my every thing that was my world i took care of her i was never a real kid because i was always taking care of her so when she died i had nothing else to do with life but now i take care of my wonderful sister and her two boys but i am blessed to have my sister because she reminds me so much of my mother i don't want to leave her side i want to be with her 24/7 because i miss my mom so much its not even funny but i love u mom with every thing in my hope your having a blast in heaven with the rest of the angels

“ Mom's anniversary was March 9th and on that day I was thinking of her getting ready for her wedding we were all at Aunt Lisa's house in Dallas. We were running around getting her ready so Tina was doing hair and make up so I was running around helping mom and getting the kids ready, then we were in my car I asked her if she wanted to go to the beach and not get married she said no take me to the church so I can get married to Chris. So I drove her to the church he was so happy and beautiful but a mom hug would be right now i will see you on the other side on the, beautiful gates of heaven. I miss you mom so much I wish u were here with me and the kids but hugs and kiss mom my angel in heaven I love you forever and always.

“ I am sooo, sooo, sorry to have just learned of Ceclia's passing. I was always so concerned with her health and hoped she would persevere through the challenges she courageously endured. It's so heartwarming to see your written memorials to a women who loved her family so much. Christina, I know you'll make your mother proud as she'll always have a hand in helping you make the best decisions. I miss you all and extend big hugs as you move forward with your lives along with the many memories of Cecelia's love. You're all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Mom was the first one to show me what a mother's love was what being a family was all about as much as I cry and scream your still not here to run to in times like now when I need you the most. you use to always say everything will be okay but what you didn't tell me is when you past away that nothing will be okay and life would be life and the sunshine days would be gone. what kills me the most is not being able to give you the heart out of my chest or the lungs from my body to keep your breathing good I would of gave you each and every part of my body to keep you here with us it's taken the breath and life out of us kids and Chris but deep down we know your our angel that lights the path to show us the way we love and miss you mom

“ First I would like to send my sympathy to kim, christina, christain. I am so very sorry that grandma cil has passed away. i hate it that she is gone but i know she is in heaven with grandma pat and my kids having a joyful time. What a Jubilee i know they are having up there. she was taken way to soon. She use to be married to my paw paw (Kim's dad) which did make her my step grandma but i've never liked the word step. Even when she married christain i still considered her my grandma. She was a very giving woman. She made me laugh and smile so much. She welcomed me into her home whenever my mom would bring us over to see her dad. I really hate that i had not got to see her since 2005 due to me to having personal matters that kept me from driving. some of my best memories from my childhood involve her just being herself and accepting me into her heart. I remember my mom and her throwing me a birthday party at her house in dallas, nc. The most memorable recent memory i have of her is....my daughter lindsey passed away in 2004 and in 2005 my son michael Jacob (mikey) passed away. she brought christie (christina) to the hospital in gastonia. Yes, christina i doubt you remember this due to you being so little yourself. christie was about 3 years old. Little christie was dancing and singing, just trying to make me laugh, which worked. I laughed so much it hurt due to having a c-section. Grandma cil had to calm christie down by telling her that laughing caused me pain from surgery. But grandma cil still found away to make me smile with the help of christina. And those were some of my darkest days losing two kids back to back. Alot of people came to my room with my mom, jesse, brian, and grandma pat but through the meds they had me on were strong. I remember the most is grandma cil and christie being there for me. I loved her so very much. I wished i could be there tonight/tomorrow but i can not due to work. But i will cherish the memories i have of her.

“ Aunt Ciel,

You was my most favorable aunt of all times but, of course you knew that. I love you so so much and I'm going to miss you something terribly! The day I got the news that you went home to heaven to be with our Father I felt as if my whole world had shut down, it still feels as if it's a dream and I wish someone would just pinch me so I'd wake up. Oh how I wish it were a dream cause then I could see your beautiful smiling face and tell you i love you at least once more! But God must of had a big job that needed to be done and needed a real special person to do it and thats why he has chosen you and took you home cause you're the person for the job cause as we all know if something needed to be done and took care of you were the woman for the job cause you'd get it done fast and the right way. Lol... you were a little pistol... You were the most loving, kind hearted, caring person I'll ever have the pleasure of knowing. And I'm glad and honored to be able to call you Aunt, and to be able to say I'm her niece. There's nothing in the world I wouldn't have done for you, I'll never forget you and I promise to always carry you close to my heart?

Love Your Niece
