“ I met Pops back in 97' at their house on Lake Norman. Little did I know 10 years later we'd be family. They were always so hospitable and boy did he know how to have fun! Fast forward to 06' when David and I first traveled down to Florida to celebrate our engagement, Pops took us out for a celebratory air boat ride!!! 😲😭
🌀 I felt lucky we made it back home in one piece. Over the years I've made so many wonderful memories with Chuck and Ms. Esther. I could go on and on but I will just say I have truly enjoyed having him in my life as my Pops-in-law and I'm so lucky my little ones had the opportunity to have such an amazing man as their great-grandfather. He will truly be missed but we will keep his memory alive and well with the stories and lessons he shared with us over all the years. ❤️ Love ya pops!
