Charles Dean Spielman, 68, of Charlotte, died unexpectedly at his home on July 20, 2020.

Charles was born in Flora, Illinois, on April 11, 1952, the son of Frederick and Ruby Mae McDonald Spielman. He grew up in Charlotte on North Myers Street and graduated from Garinger High School. He then enlisted in the United States Marine Corps from which he was subsequently discharged honorably. Blessed with a talent to work with his hands and carrying on his father's legacy, Charles worked in the HVAC business for Fred's Oil & Gas Burner Service before going to work for Siemens where he was in charge of quality control. When he wasn't working, Charles enjoyed gardening, reading, hunting and bird watching. In fact, he loved to learn about anything he didn't already know about. What he loved the most, however, was the time spent with family and friends and he will be missed by those who knew him.

Charles is survived by his children: Matthew (wife Candise) Spielman of Charlotte, Justin Spielman of Charlotte, Alex Spielman of Willamina, Oregon, Stefanie Spielman of Charlotte, Heather Spielman of Tega Cay, South Carolina, and Melinda Spielman of Charlotte; and his siblings: Sherri Bundy of Stuart, Virginia, Jimmy Spielman of Charlotte, Phyllis Nivens of Asheville, North Carolina, and Sandy Thomas of Concord, North Carolina. Charles is further survived by his grandchildren: Matthew and Candise's son, Jamar Radford; Heather's children Sean and Jacob; and Melinda's daughter, Harmony. He was preceded in death by his parents; a sister, Connie Kay Spielman; a grandson, Derrick Spielman; and two infant brothers, Roger and Ronny.

Charles' family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for him and for them. Services honoring the life, love and blessing of Charles will be held at noon on Saturday, August 1, 2020, at the funeral home chapel, 4715 Margaret Wallace Road, Matthews, NC 28105. The family will receive friends at the funeral home one hour prior to the service. A private burial will take place later at Forest Lawn West Cemetery in Charlotte.

Charles was a big supporter of St Jude's and the family would like to request that in his honor, any donations be made directly to them at www.stjude.org

PLEASE NOTE: Social distancing requirements are in strict effect and the use of facemasks is MANDATORY, thank you.

“ The Spielmam family has been like family to us the Roberts family Lillian, Malcolm, Carolyn & Gwen for over 40 years. Chuck as he was fondly know was always jovial whether repairing our furnace or enjoying a good home cooked meal with us afterwards. Chuck always performed high quality work in a professional unquestionable manner. We put our total trust in him & his workmanship always exceeded our expectations. We will dearly missed Chuck and will continue to work with his established 3rd generation family business. We extend our sincere condolences to each of Chuck's family members. May your memories comfort you. Gwen Roberts and family.

My dad was a loved and liked man. He got along everyone. No matter what race or creed. He was the type of person who would drop everything to make sure you were OK. Didn't matter day or night, he was always there for you. He will be truly missed. Every day I called him to see what was happening in his life. I will truly miss that. His knowledge and wisdom was beyond anything I could have imagined. He always had an answer for everything. We all will see him again. I love him, and I love you all. He taught me so much. I would be lucky to pass down even half of all I learned. I love you dad, and I will see you again.

Your son, Matthew.
