“ Angela, please accept my sincere prayers & condolences for your loss this week. I can only imagine what a shock it must be to you and your family.

Having just suffered loss in my family, I have some idea of what you and your family are going through. And while no words of comfort are adequate for such a loss please hold onto the word of God which tells us "blessed are the dead who die in the Lord that they may rest from their labors". There's rest for Charles as well as my loved ones and in this we can begin to find joy.

Please pass on my deepest sympathies to your children, and to all of your husband's relatives.

Dear Angela, Gail and Family:

In these trying times that are filled with uncertainty, know that God is with you to help you through.

"...because God has said," Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you." So we say with confidence, "The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid."

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever." (Heb. 13: 5-8 NIV)

I send you and your family my love, heartfelt condolences, and prayers that God will continue to strengthen, protect, comfort, and encourage each one.

With Love from your friend & Sister-in-Christ, Deborah Miller.
