“ Nicole and I was very close. When we were teenagers I use to follow her everywhere. I would love to stay the night to hear her stories play with her hair and I loved the smell of her hair. She was everything to me and she still is. This is weighing heavy on my heart and haven't fully excerpted it. I will love you Nicole til the end of time never forget you or our time together.

She was like one of the guys to me. Even this past Friday I got to see her one last time, as if God was letting me say a good bye to her. We joked around about school then she just kind of disappeared. I'm very sad she's gone, yet I also feel that she's now in the arms of someone more powerful and won't ever judge her, or let her down; she will forever be in God's arms, and forever amongst everyone who loved her's heart's. GOD REST YOUR SOUL NICHOLE.

“ Nicole was a very special soul! She cared about everyone no matter where you came from or who you were she just loved people especially her family ! Went spent a summer or little longer maybe(don't really remember time span we were young) hanging out daily and in that short time I think I meet each of them , that's because they were special to her(hope they know that) , we would drive around for hours visiting them , even drove to beach and back in a day couple times . We were young and care free . I wish life could stay that way forever !!!!!it was unforgettable just like her!!! Every time I hear "the freshman or how do I get there here, or bong thugs on the radio " I will and always have thought of her. People grow apart as time goes by and we forget to remind each other how important they are ! I wish I could of told her just one more time just how she touched my life and that best summer of my life was spent with her! We spoke not long ago , bout how much our lives had changed , and made plans to see each other soon like old friends always do, how much I regret it never happened. But I know we both knew we held a special place in each other's hearts and I can live with that until I see you again shine bright and gaurd over me.....

“ Nicole, I will never forget the first time I met you, and the times, conversations, and time we spent together I will always treasure. But instead of a memory I want to share how you had such a huge, kind loving heart. The way you would tell us all just exactly like it was, whether it was what we wanted to hear or not but because it was what we needed to hear. You would always give the best advice and encouragement, and you did these things and expressed them so passionately because you cared about everyone. You were always trying to make everyone around you smile, and you were always smiling. You overcame so much and made a good life for yourself showing people that if you really want something bad enough you can have it, but you have to stay strong and work at it. You were one of the bravest, strongest, fun, brave people I know with the most wonderful personality. You had the biggest, most kind heart I've ever known. So many people love you, and always will. You will be missed by so many, until we all see you again. Rest In Peace Nicole. Love You Always.
