“ My mother always wanted to give good advice to her daughters. She found the perfect song that she told us was just for us: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=R-V-Z1YwaOiw>
Lee Ann Womack's "I Hope You Dance." I can't listen to it without remembering my sweet mom.

“ My favorite memory of my grandmother was when I was sad I would put my head in her lap and she would stroke my hair and just not say a thing she would just tell me she loves me

“ When I was a teenager, Mama used to go out with me, Carolyn, and my friend Jeri to go eat pizza at Pizza Hut. She loved it because she felt like one of the girls when she was with us. We played the juke box, and one of her favorite songs was by Robert Plant, "Bad Case of Loving You." <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jQdaSpEeBvQ> She would dance in her seat, just like one of us teenagers! What fun we all had!

“ My favorite memory of Aunt Clara was one year when we were coloring Easter eggs at Dallas's house, Clara came out of the bathroom and commented on the special towels hanging up. She said they were so sparkly! As it turns out, the sparkly part was from people cleaning Easter egg glitter off their hands! We had the biggest laugh that day! Such a fun memory! 💕💕
