“ Colleen was our best friend when we were growing up in Babylon. Bettylou and Bruce were our neighbors. My brother, Paul, and I would be outside playing, climbing trees, building forts, playing "dolphins" in our pool, and just enjoying the company of Colleen and her sister Caroline almost everyday when we were growing up. It was so sad when they moved. Trying to keep in touch was not always easy, I wish contact was kept more closely. My dear, dear friend I wish you peace and know you will be greatly missed!□
