“ My sincere condolences to the family of Cora Mullis Newell. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in God's promise to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) While grief at the loss of Cora is great, joy at welcoming her back in the resurrection will be greater (John 5:28, 29). With deepest sympathy, John Krone.

Terry, John & family,

Though i know it must have been time it is difficult to imagine the world without her in it.....i cherish having known her even with it being just her times in the salon...I will think of you all each time I open one of the cookbooks that she so generously shared with me....

I pray that fond memories and God s grace carry you through the coming days...

*Sincerely,
Sandra Owens*

“ My Mom was the most kind, patient, compassionate, loving, giving person I've ever known. She always put others before herself. Best cook in the world. She loved to sew and when she wasn't reading cookbooks, recipes, her bible and the newspaper (her favorite the grocery store ads) she was in the kitchen cooking. She was not only my Mom but my best friend. We shared so many great times together. If you would see one you would see the other. She always said Thank You when someone would do even simple things for her. She loved animals and loved to sit with me and watch Nascar races. Then we would end up having a discussion who was the cutest - my favorite driver or hers. She had a heart of gold, such a gentle and sweet person. She was one tough little lady but her smile and that soft spoken voice would melt your heart. She loved all her family and she loved The Lord. She was an angel on earth and now my special angel in heaven.

“ There are not enough words to describe how sweet, patient, kind, thoughtful, loving and giving my Nana was. Everyone should be so blessed to have a grandmother like her. I will never forget all of the beautiful qualities about her and how much better my life has always been because of the unconditional love she gave to me.
