Dale was affectionately known as "Oso" which is Spanish for bear. He was a member of Elevation Church where he loved serving and greeting for many years. Dale's smile is fondly loved and deeply missed. He loved life and lived life to the fullest. He has left a legacy of love and faith to his family and friends. His impact on people's lives is significant.

In a recent journal entry, Dale answered the question; When I die, I believe that..."death here on earth is not the end, but the beginning. I will be going to my Eternal Home."
