

Debora Jean Lane

January 8, 1963 - October 7, 2013

Debora Jean Lane, 50, went home to be with Jesus on Monday October 7, 2013.

Debbie was born in Smithtown, New York, on January 8, 1963, the daughter of Michael Greig and Linda Pick. Most will remember her outgoing personality and service as a waitress for Park 51 Café, where she worked for over six years. Most of all, Debbie loved her Lord, her family, and her church family at Elevation Church, and she will be sadly missed by all her family and those who knew her.

Debbie is survived by her faithful and loving husband, Edward Lane; five children: Jennifer, Shawn and Skyler of Charlotte, Bambi of Asheville, and Whitney of Atlanta; five beautiful grandchildren: Abby, Charity, Aurora, Zander, and Aubrey; siblings: Beth and Mike of Anna Maria Island, Florida, Krista of Sarasota, Florida, and brother Jamie of Crawfordville, Florida. She is further survived by numerous other family members and friends. Debbie was preceded in death by her parents.

The family has given the privilege of serving them and Debbie to Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home, 4715 Margaret Wallace Road, Matthews, NC 28105. All are cordially invited to attend a memorial service celebrating the blessings of a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. Services will be held at 11:00 AM on Saturday, October 12, 2013, at the funeral home chapel. You may leave condolences, share photos and videos, and obtain additional information on Debbie's personal online memorial located at www.LoweNeddoFuneralHome.com or by calling the funeral home directly at 704-545-3553.

The family would like to thank all for the many thoughts, prayers, and acts of kindness during this time. These blessings, both those done and those yet to be done, are deeply and graciously appreciated.

“ *To the Lane family,
I read with sadness of the loss of Debora. Please know you have my deepest condolences. I know that this is a painful time for you, but nothing can take away the cherished memories that you have shared. May you find comfort in your treasured memories and the love of your Heavenly Father. He is a comforter of all those who mourn. In His Word the Bible, He tells us to throw all our anxiety upon Him, because He cares for us. (1Peter 5:7) He also wants us to know that his provision for life again is the resurrection. (Acts 24:15) So please, rely on our Heavenly Father and trust that by means of the resurrection you and your loved one may be reunited to enjoy life in paradise. (John 11:11; John 6:40; Revelation 21:3, 4; Matthew 5:5) Heartfelt prayers are with you and your family.*

“ I want everyone to know Debbie's love and passion and was the only person who could get through to me and was instrumental in me becoming what I am in my career and personal growth .I remember working with her 5-6 days a week and her encouraging me to reach for the stars no matter how many clouds get in the way. Never having a mother figure in my life deb became just that to me and il never forget her. Every time she saw me she would say "hey baby girl" in that loving way as she hugged me ...Which I can still hear her say even now to me as I think of her. I will live on her memory knowing I was the luckiest woman ever to have had the honor of one of Gods true Angels show us all that knew her to push with passion and The Lord. As it became difficult to see that strong bubbly server at 51 who was a saint fall ill so fast. I feel I should have done or been there more. But I knew she was proud of me and I was in her heart .Debbie I will miss you everyday and my heart is still with u as I will always treasure the mom like moments u shared with me ..I love u Debbie from your Tammy
