“ I have a ton of memories that include you but what I'm going to miss the most is having my talks with you.....not alot of people are on the same page as me - you know that, but you always understood where I was coming from - no one else could ever give me the advice you did. I miss you everyday - it already feels like a lifetime since you left us but I know you're not hurting anymore and that brings peace to me. Thank you for loving me not only as your niece but also your friend.....until we hug again - later gator!! I love you!!
