“ My heart goes out to the family over the loss of Dolores. When our loss fills us with sorrow. when tears express our heart's deepest feelings – that is when we need God's comfort the most. Eye has not seen and ear has not heard, neither have there been conceived in the heart of man the things that God has prepared for those who love him. 1 Corinthians 2:9. As we receive God's comfort, we have the assurance of His loving care and an abiding peace that is beyond all understanding. As Hope abides within us, we carry the certain expectation of good things to come and the promise of seeing our loved one again. John 5:21, 28; Matthew 5:5; Revelation 21:3,4. May God in His infinite wisdom and the promise of the resurrection cause you to have peace. My deepest condolences.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Dolores. Words don't always ease the pain when we are grieving the loss of a love one. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in God's promise to soon “wipe out every tear from your eyes...and death be no more” (Rev 21:3,4). While grief at the loss of Dolores is great, joy at welcoming her back in the resurrection will be greater (John 5:28, 29). With deepest sympathy and warmth of heart, John Krone.
