“ I remember when we visited North Carolina and Donna would make us grape kool-aid Popsicles and help us pull the butts of the lightning bugs off and stick them to our ears. So fun. We'll miss her.

Blue candle lit for you and me. Reminds me of you in so many ways my big sister Donna ... Carolina blue skies, Carolina Panthers our team, lighting candles together like Mama and I used to do making us feel closer across the miles. I'll continue to light our candle to represent your eternal flame of life. The laughs we shared, jokes we giggled at, long talks we had about everything and nothing at all. I'll miss having coffee together on the weekends. Miss talking about family. Miss your infectious laugh. Miss sharing music with each other. I'm missing all of you ... the big and the little things in life. Thank you for being there for me through it all. You got me and I you. Shine on DG ... Shine on. I'll be here looking up at the sky for you and know we'll be together again one day. Give me a long hug and kiss first then strike up the band, get the music going and let's dance our dance of joy, Joy, JOY.

“ My grandma was very loving and she cared about everyone. My fsvorite memory was recently a couple days before this tragedy. Well it was that me my sister my brother and dad called her and we pulled a prank on her saying that my dad got his ears pierced and she actually believed us but she eventually found out because of all the giggles and then she laughed it was great. Oh I miss her so much. she is a beautiful lady. ”

“ Dearest Donna ❤️

*Not only did you accept me as your daughter in law but as your daughter. You were always so ever sweet to me making me feel so loved and special by always telling me how beautiful you thought I was and how special I was to you . You always let me know how much you appreciated me taking such good care of Matthew and the kids. We never ever had a dull short conversation . Some were crazy some were emotional and most were so sentimental . I know how much you loved your grand babies and they too loved you ! I will never ever forget that bad ass mean air guitar that you could play ::: Bow wa wow wow wow ::: (This has me laughing and crying so hard at the same time right now thinking of it) ! Your corkiness will be missed for sure!!!!
Love you lots!!!! Xox
