

Doris Watson

June 20, 1926 - July 9, 2023

Doris Elizabeth Watson, 97, of Auburn, Georgia, died Sunday, July 9, 2023. Through the blessing of hospice, she was able to be at home with her family by her side.

Doris was born in Concord, NC, on June 20, 1926, the daughter of John Allen and Ethel Bernice Moss Jenkins. She grew up in Stanfield, NC, and in 1940, her family moved to Washington DC for 7 years. She went on to graduate from the Frederick Maryland School of the Deaf in 1946. In 1947, she moved back to Charlotte, NC and in 1950, married Rudolph Thomas Watson. In 1961, they were blessed with the birth of their only son, Mark Todd Watson. Following the birth of their son, they moved to Decatur, Georgia, in 1968. There, Doris worked in the nursery at Forrest Hills Baptist Church in the 70's and 80's. She also worked as a manager in the glassware department at Woolworths. Doris eventually retired to Auburn, Georgia where she could be around her family

When not working, Doris enjoyed playing cards, dominoes and other games. Spending time with family and friends was always a treat. Most of all, Doris loved being a wife and mother.

Doris is survived by her son, Todd and his wife Kim of Auburn, Georgia; her grandsons: Taylor Watson and Brandon Watson of Auburn and Michael (wife Blake) Watson of Pendergrass, Georgia; one great grandson Grey Watson; and a sister, Glenda Love of Locust, NC. Doris is further survived by numerous other family members and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband.

Doris' family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for her and for them. Services will be held at 11 AM on Friday, July 14th, at the Stanfield Baptist Church. A gathering will be held at the church from 10 AM until the time of service. Following the service, Doris will be taken to her final place of earthly rest at Locust Presbyterian Church Cemetery.
