Dot is further survived by one brother Lewis Bowers. She was preceded in death by her parents, her loving husband, four brothers, and one sister.

The family would like to send a special thanks to staff members of The Little Flower who loved her and made her time there so special and for the care they gave her, and the many new friends there who loved her. She loved each

“ My name is Melody McCall. I worked at Boonedocks Restaurant at Holden Beach for Scotty and Joann for several years. That's where I met JoAnn's parents. They were always such a joy when they came to town and came to the restaurant and huge hugs. Sweetest people. They are together again. Holding hands I'm sure. I know how much they were loved by their family. Prayers for peace. They were angels here and will be for eternity.

“ I will always cherish Dot and what she has meant to me and my family especially my daughter. I will forever be able to see her doing her yardwork and picking sticks up out of her yard and how she so lovingly took care of Mr Harold. We are here if ya'll need anything from us.
