

Douglas Edward Wooten

August 25, 1957 - March 2, 2016

Douglas Edward Wooten, 58, of Mint Hill, North Carolina, passed away on March 2, 2016.

Doug was born on August 25, 1957 in Oconee County, South Carolina. He did landscaping and irrigation and had his own lawn service. He met and married his wife of 23 years in Black Mountain, North Carolina. He was a devoted family man who put all of his time and love into his children and grandchildren. He loved fishing, golf, and participating in Boy Scouts of America Troop 144 with his son at Blair Road UMC. He especially loved his Clemson Tigers! His other love was his dogs, an Australian shepherd and two Jack Russell Terriers.

He is survived by his wife Elaine, daughter Cristi, and son Allen, as well as two grandchildren, Brianna and Jordan. A celebration of life for Doug is pending.

“ Doug has been a good friend to our family and our son Alex, who Doug called his "other son". Doug was a good person and had a kind heart. He was very active with Troop 144, and all the boys have fond memories of him. God has gained a special new person up in heaven, but we will sure miss him here on this earth. My love goes out to Doug's family.
