

Edward Anthony Bosch

October 9, 1966 - May 20, 2019

Edward Anthony Bosch, 52, of Charlotte, died unexpectedly at his home on May 20, 2019.

“Ed” as he was known at work, “Anthony” as he was known to his wife, and “Andy” as he was known to his family blessed this world with his presence in Princeton, NJ, on October 9, 1966, the son of Edward and Aurora Guzzo Bosch. He grew up (well, got older anyway, he never felt growing up was something you had to do) in southern NJ, and graduated from Rutgers University with a degree in Automotive Technology and a minor in malt beverage consumption. In the 1980’s, he moved to Charlotte, NC. On October 9, 1992, he married Kara Hayes at St. Mary’s Historic Chapel in downtown Charlotte. He worked for numerous auto care places in the area including Gerard Auto Care in Mint Hill, McCarthy Tire, Firestone Car Care Center and the Goodyear Auto Center in Matthews. He was well known to the Matthews Police as he would do the winter tire swap outs on their vehicles. He knew the officers so well that after racing one of them down the median on Monroe Road, Ed told the judge that the only reason he had to show up for court was because the officer lost.

Ed was a rebel who would go against the grain and buck the system whenever he could. Many stories will remain untold until the statute of limitations has passed. He did not expect others to change, however, as with Ed what you saw was what you got and he expected the same of others. Ed had no problem taking in the things in life that brought him joy. Beautiful women, NASCAR, Alan Kulwicki and country music were just some of the joys he counted in life. Ed could turn off the country music though when he felt more in the mood to listen to Metallica, AC/DC, or any of the other classic rock bands before the girlish looking hairbands showed up. Perhaps most notably, he is now doing his own "Spirit in the Sky" video with Norman Greenbaum as you read this. Not to feel uncultured, Ed also enjoyed the finer "ings" in life: Fishing, hunting, shooting and drinking. If you haven't already gathered it, Ed was not someone who could be put into a few paragraphs for the all the love, laughter and blessings he left behind. Speaking of blessed, Ed also had an uncanny ability to work with his hands. There wasn't anything he could not take apart nor put back together. And in all seriousness, Ed loved most of all the time spent with family and friends, and he will be greatly missed by all who knew him. His conspiracy theories and tinfoil hat spirit ensure he will not be forgotten anytime soon!

Ed is survived by his wife, Kara of Charlotte; two children that his wife knows of: Rebecca and James; father, Edward Joseph (wife Joan) of Fort Mill, SC; three sisters: Helene Jo (husband William) Weyland of Clementon, NJ; Aurora Theresa Bosch of Charlotte; and Donna (husband Chris) Lipinski of Grand Blanc, MI. Ed is further survived by four nieces: Samantha, Kailey, Nina and Cassie; two nephews: Billy and David; as well as numerous other family and friends.

Ed's family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for him and for them. As Ed wanted, a gathering of friends not holding a sad, sappy service but instead celebrating his craziness and joys in life will be held from 4 to 7 pm at the funeral home, 4715 Margaret Wallace Road, Matthews, NC. All are encouraged to "come as they are", especially well-endowed blonde females, and spend time informally sharing the stories and memories Ed left behind. All services will conclude that evening. Please take a moment to share a memory or photo.

The family would greatly appreciate donations in Ed's memory be made to American Diabetes Association, www.diabetes.org or you can also make your donation by phone at 1-800-DIABETES (1-800-342-2383).

“ Dear Kara and Aurora,

I'm visiting my parents for my 50th and we were reminiscing. She found this news quite by accident. I am so sorry for your loss.

I remember how happy your family was, Aurora, and how loved you were. I'm so glad Kara gets to be part of that.

May Andy's memory bring blessings to you and yours.

“ I could go on and on about my brother but I will try to keep it short.

Andy was the perfect little brother, perfect at annoying his big sister). As a boy he loved building models, read anything he could get his hands on, including the encyclopedia, and beheading my Barbie's (so many Barbie's). Since we grew up in a rural area we were each others only playmates, sometimes we even included our little sister if we felt generous. It was lots of fun making discoveries in the woods behind our house (never found the Indian ghost), exploring Thompson Park, riding our bikes and even sneaking to the Lake Freeze for ice cream (we always got caught, but hey it was great ice cream!)

Like all siblings we had our ups and downs but Andy was always one thing, entertaining in his thoughts and actions. His way of looking at the world and dealing with it was truly unique just like the man he became.

“ Though I never had the pleasure of meeting Anthony while he lived among us in person, I felt like I knew him through all the hilarious and wonderful stories shared by his wife Kara who I have the complete joy of working with.

Kara I want to send my heart felt condolences to you an your family but when I remember your stories of your life with Anthony and the joy and hilarity you shared with him -- I instead send my heart felt love and warm hugs to you and your family as you celebrate Anthony and how dear I know he was to all of you!!
