“POPS was a true definition of a Step-Pops to my sister and I. No, he didn't marry our mother but he took good care of us. He only wanted the best for us. I met him when I was about 17, I knew his daughter Sonia & son, Chris because I went to school with them but didn't know POPS. He was stubborn, stern, kind hearted, a jokester and FUSSY. Anything we asked for he made sure we got it...Even though he had a mean strike, my sister and I never saw it. we got the funny fusser (lol). He called me his lawyer. Whatever he needed done re: business.. He say "Hey Lawyer, handle my light work" He called my sister Hey Woman, she would make all his favorite dinners and she would speak to him 99 times a day" He was our grouchy teddy bear!!! Pops, we will love you forever and always!!!! S.I.P.
