

Eugene Clyde Brown

December 24, 1946 - July 28, 2022

Eugene Clyde Brown passed away at home on Thursday July 28 2022 in the arms of his wife of 26 years, Linda Bateman Rothwell. He was preceded in death by his parents Walter Lee and Juliette Craven Brown, and his son Christopher Brown. He leaves behind his wife, Linda Bateman Rothwell of Charlotte, grandson William Brandon Brown (Tiffany) of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, stepchildren Brandt D Lawing (Rebecca) of Waxhaw, NC, Sean B Lawing (Beth) of Philadelphia, PA Tracy Lawing Rule (Tyson) of Monroe, NC, Valerie Lawing Scheid (Daniel) of Indian Trail, NC and 12 step grandchildren. Clyde was an electrical contractor and the owner of South Iredell Electric Company. An avid fisherman, boater, and gun collector, he loved the Lake Norman area where he lived all his life except when he served in the U S Army and was stationed in Germany. Quite a character in his youth, he became a quiet man after he retired and was known for his deep voice and lopsided smile. A memorial service and interment will be held at the Salisbury National Cemetery in Salisbury, N.C. Monday, August 22, 2022 at 1PM.
