

Freddie Dean Betts

June 30, 1938 - November 14, 2024

Freddie Dean Betts, 86, of Charlotte, died November 14, 2024, at Atrium Mercy in Charlotte.

Dean, as he preferred to be called, was born in Kentucky on June 30, 1938, the son of Freddie and Frances Betts. He earned a bachelor's degree and became a computer programmer, working for different organizations including the government. When not working, he enjoyed playing trumpet and traveling.

Freddie is survived by his wife, Valentyna, as well as numerous other relatives and friends, many of whom shared in his Baha'i faith.

A simple, natural burial will take place at 11 AM on Monday, November 18, 2024, at Evergreen Cemetery in Charlotte, with services later at the Charlotte Baha'i Center.

Dean's family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for him.
