To My Family - George was one of the kindness, gentless, most giving and loving persons I have ever known. His being gone will leave such a void in our lives that can never again be filled. As I remember George I always think of what a big kid he really was. I know that he took each of my children and grandchildren with him on his trips to Disneyland - including my biggest kid - John. They always had so much fun. I will truly miss George with all my heart, I loved him so much - the only peace I can find in this is that he is now at home with his parents and his brother - he will be so missed.

Always Remembered - Never Forgotten.

To My Family - I love you all - Wanda
