

Halstead V. Owens Jr.

October 10, 1956 - May 23, 2017

Halstead V. Owens Jr., born October 10, 1956, passed away in his Charlotte home on May 23, 2017.

A lifelong resident of Charlotte, North Carolina, Hal graduated from Garinger High School and went on to pursue a profession in auto mechanics post his studies at Nashville Auto-Diesel College. In 2013, he won Fleet Services Associate of the Year at his current employer, an accomplishment he and his family were extremely proud of.

He enjoyed going to the beach, gardening, spending time with his family, and most recently, joy rides in his Chevy Camaro.

Hal is survived by his two daughters Katie Arbaugh and Beth Owens, his son-in-law Josh Arbaugh, his sister Joan Owens, and two precious grandchildren, Audrey and Louisa Arbaugh.

A Celebration of Life service will be held on Tuesday, May 30. Service arrangements will be communicated privately.

“ Dear Susan, Katie & Beth,
Our hearts are heavy for all of you and we are so deeply sorry for your loss.
Hal was the very first person we met so many years ago. Hal was such a good friend and anytime Joe was in the driveway he would always walk over to see if he could help. We will always be thankful for his friendship and he will be missed so much . So very much!
Hal Daddy we love you our sweet friend. We will see you one day again.
With Love, The Deal Family
