

Heath Cameron Morrison

July 4, 1976 - February 28, 2016

Heath Cameron Morrison, 39, of Charlotte, died surrounded by friends and family on Sunday, February 28th at the Hospice of Union County in Monroe.

Heath was born in Charlotte on July 4, 1976, the son of Rodney Jones and Frances Elaine Jenkins Morrison. He was the owner and operator of CAM Recovery in Charlotte. Heath enjoyed many things in life:

He enjoyed going out to dinner with Tina and drinkin...

He enjoyed fishing with his "young-in", Cameron Ann, and drinkin...

He enjoyed yelling at the TV while watching the Carolina Panthers play football and drinkin...

He enjoyed fixing stuff that was always broken around Chrissy's house and drinkin...

He enjoyed playing pool with friends and drinkin...

When not doing the above, he could be found working with Morrison Construction, doing Warranty Management for Tara Properties, and owning and operating Cam Recovery and Towing where he also did repo's and salvage.

Most of all, Heath loved the time spent with family and friends. He is survived by his mother, Frances Jenkins Smith; and two sisters, Amanda M. Daniels and Laura M. Royster. He is further survived by numerous other relatives and friends.

Heath's family has given the family of Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of serving them. So sorry to hear of his passing. Pictures bring back a lot of memories Frances. Haven't seen him in several years. I just can't believe it. Hope he's walking hand and hand with his dad that he missed so much.
