“ I had the privilege of working with Henry twice a month for almost ten years. I never knew what to expect when I walked into the shop. Most of the time it was laughs but some time I got the riot act when I messed up his order. He would yell at me and then call me "old woman" and all was fine. I kept in touch with him after I retired with phone calls and email. I will keep the last time I saw him in my heart forever. Big grin with a big hug. There will never be another Henry. I love you Henry.
