November 8, 1971 - May 6, 2013

Please visit Ingrid's story on her battle with cancer at <http://www.caringbridge.org/visit/ingridlindahl>

Ingrid Cristina Lindahl, Mrs. Kevin Yount, 41, of Matthews, died Monday, May 6, 2013, at Presbyterian Novant Hospital in Charlotte after courageously battling ovarian cancer for the last 18 months.

Ingrid was born in Cali, Colombia, on November 8, 1971, the daughter of George and Maria Cristina (Cagiao) Lindahl. She graduated from Florida International University with a degree in psychology. After moving to Charlotte, Ingrid was blessed to find her soul mate, Kevin. She always assured her dear ones that her dad had sent him. They were married on May 28, 2011. Ingrid was diagnosed w/ ovarian cancer seven months later.

Even though their time together was too short, their years were filled with tremendous joy and happiness. Ingrid and Kevin knew her cancer would take her too early. They still thank God for the precious time they had.

In caring service to others, Ingrid was a case worker for The ARC of North Carolina. Ingrid cherished her precious time with Kevin enjoying hiking trips to the North Carolina mountains, white daisies, and spending time with her dogs, Tasy and Ginger.

Most of all, Ingrid loved her faith and her family. She was a member of Saint John Neumann Catholic Church in Charlotte. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her.

Ingrid is survived by her husband, Kevin Yount; two stepchildren, Daniel and Ian Yount; her mother, Maria Cristina Lindahl; her brother, Erick Lindahl and his wife Alejandra; her aunt and uncle Rose Marie and Mario Carvajal; and three cousins, Carolina (and husband, Richard) Latorre, Ana Maria Carvajal, and Gustavo Carvajal. She is further survived by numerous other family members, church family members, and friends. She was preceded in death by her father George Lindahl.

A Mass of Christian Burial led by Father Pat Hoare will be held at 1 PM on Wednesday, May 8, at St. John Neumann Catholic Church, 8451 Idlewild Rd, Charlotte. The family will receive guests at the church one hour prior to the mass. Services will conclude at the church and all are welcome after the mass to join with the family in the church hall for fellowship.

The family would appreciate any memorials in Ingrid's name to St. John Neumann Church, address listed above.

Kevin has given Lowe-Neddo Funeral Home the privilege of caring for his wife and her family. Please visit Ingrid's personal tribute page at www.LoweNeddoFuneralHome.com to share memories and photos of Ingrid's beautiful life.

“ A POEM READ AT INGRID'S FUNERAL
"I'M FREE"

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call.
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full I've savored much,
Good times, good friends, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all to brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, he set me free.

“ Sometimes in life we are fortunate enough to meet someone who touches our heart and soul in a way that is very special. My friendship with dear Ingrid was just that. A brief encounter by most standards of time that will remain with me for a lifetime. Ingrid's true warmth, faith and love shone so brightly, I consider myself truly blessed to have met her and thinking of her reassures me of all of of life's daily blessings. She has taught me to "not sweat the small stuff." What an amazingly strong woman of faith whose voice, even when tired, sounded like a sweet song of love and joy and whose smile radiated peace and warmth. Joan Plavnicky

“ *It has been said, “Love is stronger than death even though it can't stop death from happening, but no matter how hard death tries it can't separate people from love. It can't take away our memories either. In the end, life is stronger than death.” Nothing can take the memories of Ingrid from us, the way she looks at Kevin, the gentleness she treated Kevin's family with.
