“ I cannot believe Jackie is no longer with us. I worked with her at Discovery Place in Charlotte, NC. She was always peppy and on the move. She was such a hard worker and made everyone feel good. She always said "Hello" and "How ya doin?" whenever she passed by. She was always making sure the building looked clean from top to bottom. If she saw something out of the way or not the way it was supposed to look, she would take care of it. I had the best time with her when Janet, Yvette and I went to the mountains. It seems so long ago but the memory is so close by. I will miss her smile and the way she could talk a mile a minute about a situation. She called me Vivica even though that wasn't my name. Love your memory Jackie, and will always keep you close to my heart.
