“ I remember when Azalle spent time with us during her vaction and would bring Jackie.

“ Jackie and I met through my mother over twenty years ago. Even after Jackie moved to Charlotte, North Carolina she and I remain the best of friends. We shared our ups and downs. We laughed and sometimes cried. The main topic we talked about was our grandchildren. Each time a grandchild was born she would send me a photo. We would talk hours about them. When the holidays approached she say I have to start my holiday cooking. I would laugh. I will truly miss her and the comfort she gave me when I needed it
Jackie I will miss you.
