“ *Brad..... May you find peace and love from all the heartache you have experienced. I told you once, my brother from another mother, that what others said about you will only affect you as much as you let it. I know first hand the things that were said and done to you, and I can only say that I am sorry that there are people like that, that have nothing to do but try to make your life as miserable as they can. It is sad to know that these people actually think they are superior to anyone. I told you to let it roll off your back, but I guess the daily grind of hearing those things everyday would wear at you. Your mom loved you with all her heart. Dru would have given her last breath for you. You were lucky to have a mom like her. Christian, loving, and one of the most loved women I know. When you and I talked on the phone I always told you that I loved you and you told me the same. I will always carry you in my heart and miss you everyday. Go now... Enjoy your mom and dad and Frank... He loved you too. You know that. Go rest high on that mountain and see the face of God. You deserve it. I love you Brad. Your sis....
