“ Words don't seem to be enough to express my deep sympathy to Marilyn and the family on their loss. He was such a fine man. He and Marilyn, more than anyone I know, have taught me what love is and shown it to me by example in their every day lives. He always had a smile and kind words. Thank you Jesus for his love for me that he showed in so many ways. As someone said, he is home now and we know we will see him again one day. I will continue to pray for Marilyn and her family in the days ahead.

“ What a legacy Mr Cail has left . When I first met Mr ad Mrs Cail I was so taken back because of their passion to help others and to teach all the powerful words of our lord . I can still see and hear his big smile , always ready to listen first then give his point of view. The Cail family are so much like Mr Cail , thoughtful , helpful , kind , perfect example of how to live through Jesus , Fun , big smile , people. I'm so sorry for this loss , I m so luck to have met him and to ave the Cail family in my life. He is home now but I know we will miss him. , what. Life he lived !!

“ We want to express our deepest sympathy to the family. We are rejoicing that he is with his Lord and Savior but sorrowing with you in your great loss. May God be near to you and comfort you during the days ahead and give you strength and peace. I Thess. 4:13-18 promises that we will all be reunited in glory and we look forward to that for sure...what a great promise of God's great love for us!

“ Met Jim and his family only once when they came to Brasil for Grant and Regina's wedding. That was enough to see the light of Christ in his life. He left a gift to our family, his son Grant. We are so thankful for the great example he was to his son, leading him to become a servant of God in Brasil and become part of our family. We are truly blessed by that! looking forward to the day we'll be joined together forever as one family in Heaven. Love and prayers to his family.

“ Dear Marilyn, Craig, and Sharon,

We too grieve with you at the sudden loss of you husband and father and will be praying for you in these coming days and weeks. Only the Lord can heal the pain of your loss and comfort you because Jim knew the Lord and we will see him again whole. Until then, you will have the fond memories to hold onto and reminisce about all the good times together.

Love & Prayers,

John & Janice Jenkins
