“ Dolly, So sorry to hear about Arnold. Steve Smith told me that he had died. I met Arnold when he was a manager at Hardee's on Wilkinson Blvd. I was a manager at Hardee's on Eastway at the time. Your mom was our biscuit maker. My deepest sympathy goes out to your family.

“ Dear Dolly,
I stopped by your home last Friday to exchange contact information before you moved to your new home and was utterly shocked to hear about the passing of your wonderful husband Arnold. I am so very sorry.

I met both of you while walking my dog Bella and I would run into you or Arnold walking Hobo. Although I did not know either of you very well I could tell there was a kindness and a goodness in both of you. I would look forward to stopping on my morning walk to chat.

I am praying that you feel comfort from all those around you who love you. You will remain in my prayers each morning.

“ Arnold and I played together in a playpen in his momma and daddy's yard, in Gastonia, North Carolina. My momma was working at Arlington Mill and my daddy had just started his radio repair business. Arnold and I grew up stamping through the woods with our BB guns at the ready. I spend the night at his house so many times when I was young and I remember how his family laughed so much and seemed to love each other so much. I remember wishing I was part of his wonderful family.

“ To Dolly and Brenda, I have known Arnold since I was a little girl and was a friend of Brenda's as a first grader. He was like another big brother. I always knew him to be soft spoken and fair to everyone he dealt with. I also came in contact with him as an adult when married to my children's father. He was the manager of Hardee's on Freedom Dr. and my ex worked with him. I knew when he and Dolly got married before I did because Brenda and I were in high school together at the time. I know that it is a match made in heaven. Dolly, God will fill your days when they feel unbearable, but all you have to do is remember the love that you shared for the last 50 years, and hopefully that will sustain you. Brenda, I know that for you, it seems like your world is doing so much changing , but your faith in our heavenly Father will sustain you. Just know that my thoughts and prayers are with both of you.
Love always, Alice

“ Dolly and Family...

I am so honored to know you all and have been apart of Arnold's life. He was the kindest, thoughtful, caring man. He loved you all so very much! Arnold helped me many times with the banding of my huge oak trees when my husband became disabled... he always asked about our well being and offered to help in any way he could . I will also cherish the bluebird houses that he made for me. He was truly a special soul. I am going to miss our chats when I would cut his hair and also when he brought his beloved Dolly to see me... I appreciate the time that I knew him and will surely miss that laugh and smile. God Bless the Mullis Family and all who knew Arnold. Heaven has a very special Angel now❤️
